DEAR Sponsors,

It is a pleasure to share with you our successes in developing young adolescence into the collegiate student athlete.

DEBO's primary focus is young female basketball players. Our success derives from not only training and developing their basketball skill but their off court game as well. (Choices, Habits and Attitude) the combination of this is the primary reasons why we are so successful. There are allot of young athletes that can play at the next level but they eliminate themselves because of their off- court game.

We are honored to say we have

- ⇒ 100% placement into the collegiate level.
- ⇒ 40 girls in college becoming young educated female athletes.
- ⇒ 6.8 million dollars in collegiate scholarships.

Every year gets harder and harder for young students to get into college and even more difficult to achieve employment without a degree. We help them to focus on their strength while developing their weaknesses which allows them to use the gift of basketball to become educated.

We take pride in being part of the PACT program. This program gives the resources and tools to the 3 most influential people in a Childs life. The Parent: The Coach: and The Teacher, assisting them in the how to's of participating in the team effort to deliver the athlete to the next level. For our Coaches, just knowing the game is not good enough. Having the ability to motivate your child is the skill we look for first, we then train the details.

This is not an easy program. It takes focus, discipline and most of all passion. If you see potential in the player that gave this to you I strongly suggest talking to them and making sure this is what they want. If so then you know your sponsorship will not go to waste and you truly will be helping them achieve THEIR GOALS. The rewards of helping a child achieve their goals are invaluable. The results of the young ladies that have participated and completed the program have been that they:

Understanding who they are. Believe in them-selves. And Stay Unique!

Being able to make Good Choices * Form healthy Habits* and Choose and Attitude of Success.

Thank you in advanced for believing and contribution to the success of our/your young ladies opportunity!
